

Welcome back Miss Miller

I am back...

Hello to all! For those of you who don't know me, my name is Naomi Miller and I am the Senior Learning and Inclusion Mentor at Hove Juniors (Holland Road Site). I have been on maternity leave for the last year and returned last week.

A bit about me... I have worked at Hove Juniors since 2015 and absolutely love it here. My role is different every day and I get to work with some amazing children and families. I work one to one, and in small groups to support with anything that could be a barrier to learning – for example worries, attachment, self-esteem, transition and a whole host of other things. I am also a Parent Gym coach – which is an amazing course that I would recommend all parents and carers try out.

For those that already know me – I've missed you! My baby, Mae, is nearly one and is a bundle of laughs. She's walking and getting into absolutely everything.

It's been a strange old year – difficult for most of us at different times, and perhaps for different reasons. I am currently getting my head around the new ways of working and how best I can continue to support people. I will be working on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and can be contacted via the inclusion team email, inclusionteam@hovejun.brighton-hove.sch.uk should you want to touch base or have a chat.

I will be on the gate at times so I will hopefully see some of you then. In the meantime, keep being excellent.
